

Director
Church Architecture
Baptist General Convention of Texas

Keith D. Crouch. AIA. NCARB

Mr. Crouch is Director of Church Architecture for the Baptist General Convention of Texas. He has served as a church facilities planning consultant with Texas Baptists since 1987 while conducting over 2,000 individualized church architecture consultations. Mr. Crouch has nine years prior experience with commercial architectural firms and is a State licensed registered architect, a member of the American Institute of Architects and certified by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards.